SYNOPSIS

This episode explores the painful consequences of wrong choices and the ongoing battle between good and evil. When Allie's uncle is hurt by a drunk driver, the characters wrestle with questions about fairness, justice, and why bad things happen. Through personal stories, songs, and conversations, they learn that while God allows freedom of choice, He also offers love, guidance, and a better way. Each of us is invited to think carefully, act with kindness, and choose God's way in a hurting world.

KEY QUESTIONS

1. Why do bad things happen in the world?
2. What is the "battle between good and evil"?

5. How can we choose God's way every day?

BIG IDEAS

2. Every choice has consequences.
4. Evil began with Satan's rebellion.

OBJECT LESSONS

1. Choices Have Consequences – The Cookie Lesson

Materials:

- A tray or plate with real or pretend cookies (chocolate chip cookies work well!)
- A napkin or small plate for each child

Lesson Objective

To help children understand that every choice has a consequence—some are immediate and obvious (like a tummy ache from too many cookies), while others are long-term and affect more than just ourselves.

Lesson Script / Demonstration

1. Show the Cookies

"Who likes cookies? Would you like to eat all of these cookies right now?"

2. Invite a Few Responses

"It sounds yummy, right? But what might happen if you eat too many?"

3. Hold Up a Cookie and Say:

"Sometimes we make choices because they feel good in the moment—just like eating cookies. But eating too many can hurt our stomach. That's a consequence."

4. Bring in the Analogy

"Life is full of choices, too. Some choices seem fun at first, but they may cause problems later—like lying, being mean, or not listening to instructions."

5. Contrast with Wise Choices

"Wise choices may not always be easy or exciting right away—but they help us grow strong, stay safe, and make God happy. Just like eating a healthy snack instead of 10 cookies!"

Discussion Questions

- What are some examples of fun choices that could have bad consequences?
- What are some wise choices that might take more effort but have better results?
- Can one choice hurt someone else? How?
- How can God help us make good choices?
- Is there a choice you made that you learned from?

OBJECT LESSONS

2. Good vs Evil Tug-of-War

Materials:

- A sturdy rope
- Space for a safe and fun tug-of-war game
- Labels or signs for each side (e.g., "God's Way" vs. "Satan's Way")
- Optional: coloured wristbands, name tags, or flags to represent the two sides.

Setup

Divide the group into two teams. Assign one team to represent "God's Way" and the other "Satan's Way" (be sensitive to the age of the children—use terms like "wrong choices" vs. "right choices" for younger kids if needed). Clearly mark the centre line or "neutral zone" to determine which side is winning..

Instructions

1. Begin the game by saying:

- "This rope represents the battle happening in every heart. The struggle between good and evil. One side pulls you toward truth, kindness, and God's love. The other side tries to drag you toward selfishness, pride, or hurting others."

2. Play a few rounds of tug-of-war.

3. Afterward, gather the children and ask:

- "What did it feel like to be pulled?"
- "Was it hard to stay on your side?"
- "What helped you win?"

Spiritual Application:

- Explain that the Bible talks about a very real spiritual battle (Ephesians 6:12, NLT):
- "For we are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world..."
- Just like the game, we're being pulled in two directions. God calls us to choose His way—loving others, being honest, and doing what's right. Satan wants to pull us away from that.
- Read James 4:7 (NLT):
- "So humble yourselves before God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you."

Discussion Questions

- What are some things that try to pull you away from doing what's right?
- How can we stay strong and pull for God's team?
- Who helps us when the tug-of-war feels too hard?

CRAFT IDEAS

1. Good & Evil Battle Shield

Materials:

- Large sheet of cardstock or cardboard (cut into a shield shape - template included)
- Markers, crayons, or coloured pencils
- Scissors
- Glue or tape
- Foil or metallic paper (optional for decorative "armor" effect)
- Craft stick or cardboard handle
- Stickers or cut-out icons (optional: hearts, crosses, lightning bolts, etc.)

Instructions:

- 1. Cut Out the Shield from the cardstock into a classic shield shape
 - Draw a vertical line down the centre of the shield. One side will represent God's Way, the other side Satan's Way.
- 2. Label the Two Sides. At the top of one half, write: "Standing with God" On the other half, write: "Temptations from Satan"
- 3. Decorate Each Side:
 - God's Side: Encourage kids to draw or write words, pictures, or symbols that represent godly values, such as: Truth, Love, Forgiveness, Kindness, Courage, Prayer, Faith, Light.
 - Satan's Side: On this half, they should include things Satan might tempt us with, like: Lies, Anger, Jealousy, Fear, Gossip, Selfishness, Temptation.
- 4. Add a Handle. Attach a craft stick or cardboard strip to the back to make it easy to hold like a real shield.
- 5. Optional Enhancements:
 - Cover parts of the shield with foil for a metallic "armour" look
 - Add glitter, gems, or stickers on the "God's Way" side to emphasize light and beauty
 - Include a memory verse, like Ephesians 6:11 – "Put on the full armour of God..."

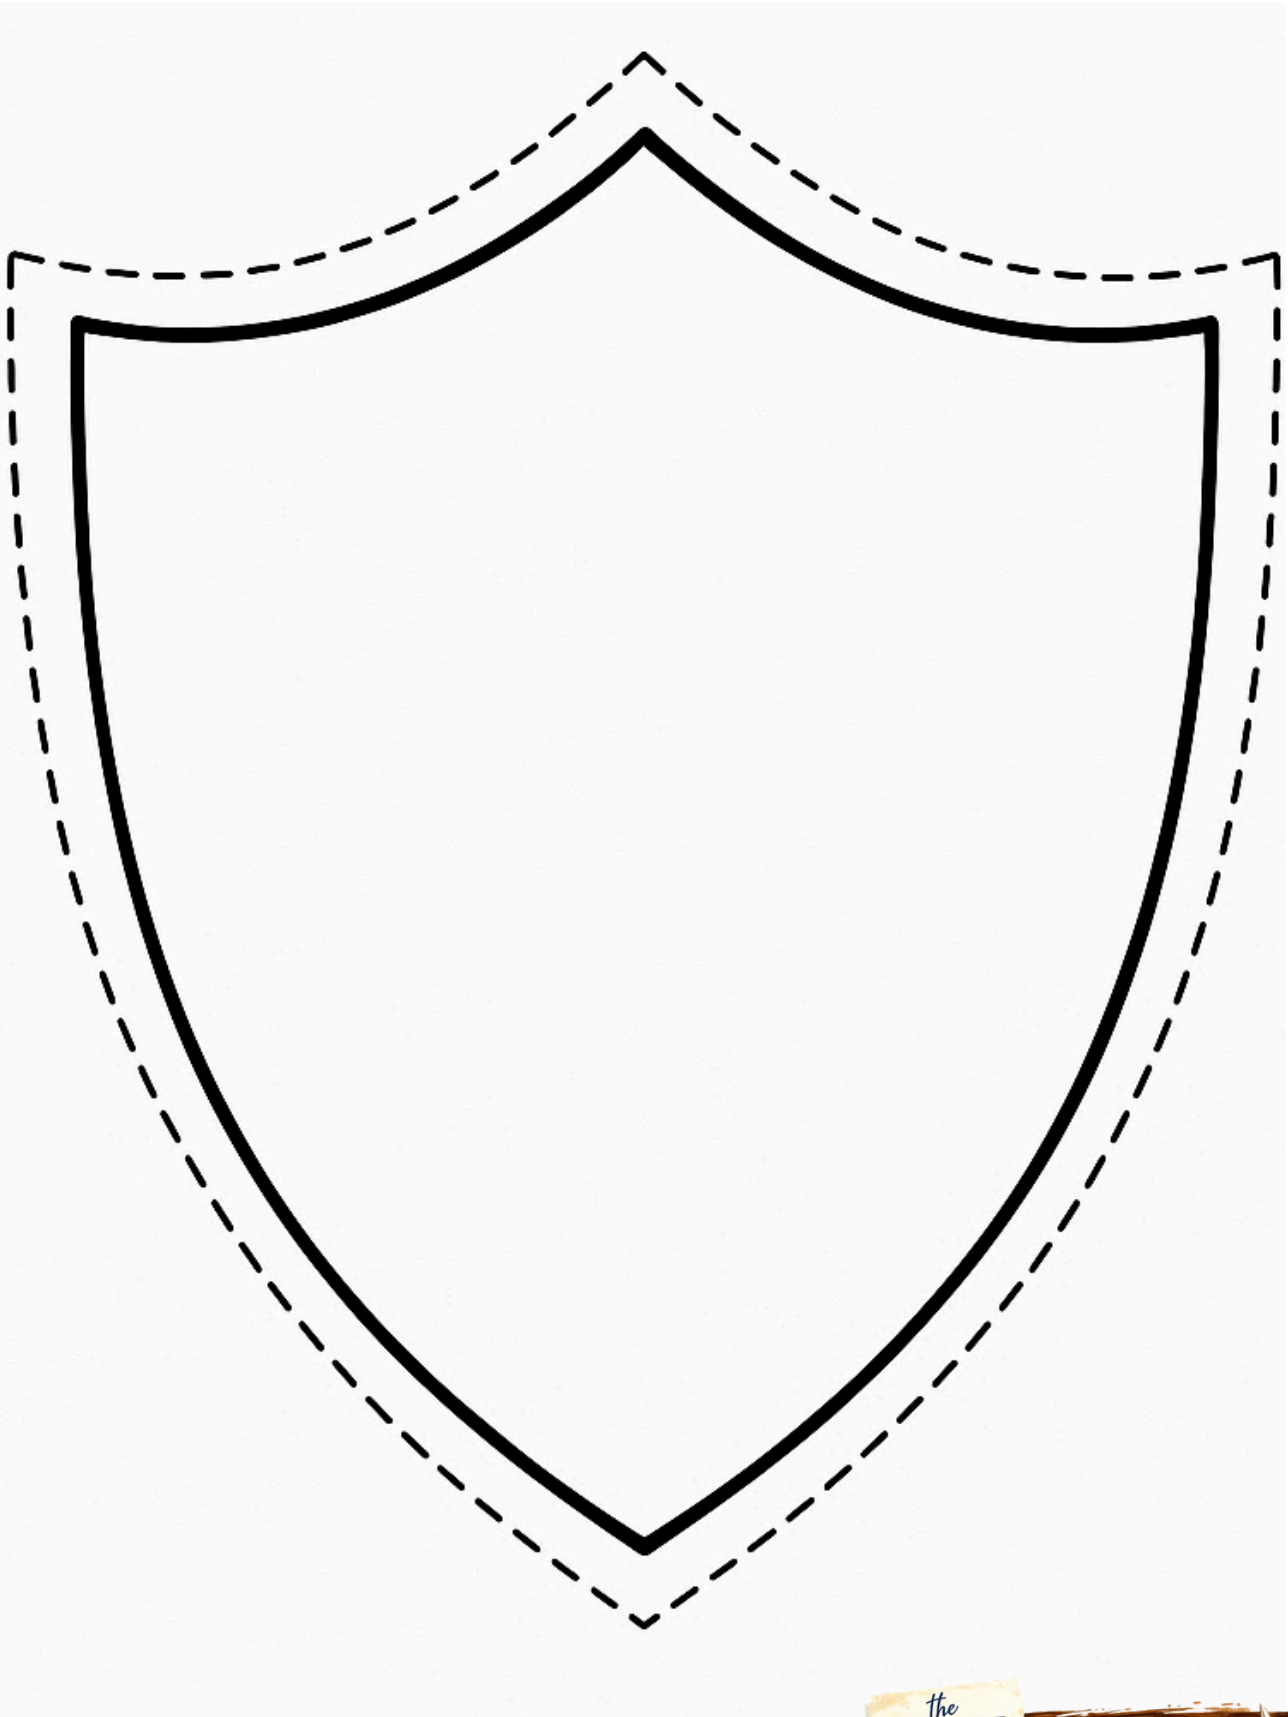

Discussion Prompt While Crafting:

- Why is it important to recognize the difference between right and wrong?
- What can we do when we feel pulled toward making a wrong choice?
- How can God help us "shield" ourselves from temptation.

CRAFT IDEAS

2. Discernment Dice

Purpose:

To help children develop the habit of pausing and thinking through their choices by using prompts grounded in love, wisdom, and biblical values.

Materials:

- Template of a dice net (printable cube pattern included)
- White cardstock or paper
- Scissors
- Glue or tape
- Markers, crayons, or colored pencils
- (Optional) Stickers or icons (hearts, question marks, stop signs, etc.)

1. Print and Cut the Dice Template

Use a standard cube template with six faces. Cut along the outer edges and fold along the inner lines.

2. Label Each Side With a Discernment Prompt

On each of the six faces, write one action or question that encourages Godly thinking:

- Side 1: "Stop & Pray"
Before reacting, take a moment to ask God for wisdom.
- Side 2: "Ask: Is This Loving?"
Does this choice show love to others?
- Side 3: "Think of the Consequences"
What could happen if I choose this? Will someone be hurt or helped?

Discernment Dice - continued

- Side 4: "What Would Jesus Do?"
Think about how Jesus would act in this situation.
- Side 5: "Talk to a Trusted Adult"
Get advice from a parent, teacher, or leader who loves God.
- Side 6: "Is This Honoring to God?"
Would God smile at this decision?

3. Decorate Each Side

Let the children colour the sides and add symbols to help them remember each action (e.g., praying hands, heart, light bulb, Bible, etc.)

4. Assemble the Dice

Fold along the lines and tape or glue the tabs to form a cube.

How to Use the Dice:

- Present children with different real-life or hypothetical scenarios (e.g., "Your friend asks you to join in teasing someone").
- Have them roll the Discernment Dice and respond based on the action shown.
- Discuss their answers and help guide them toward godly thinking and choices.

Reflection Questions:

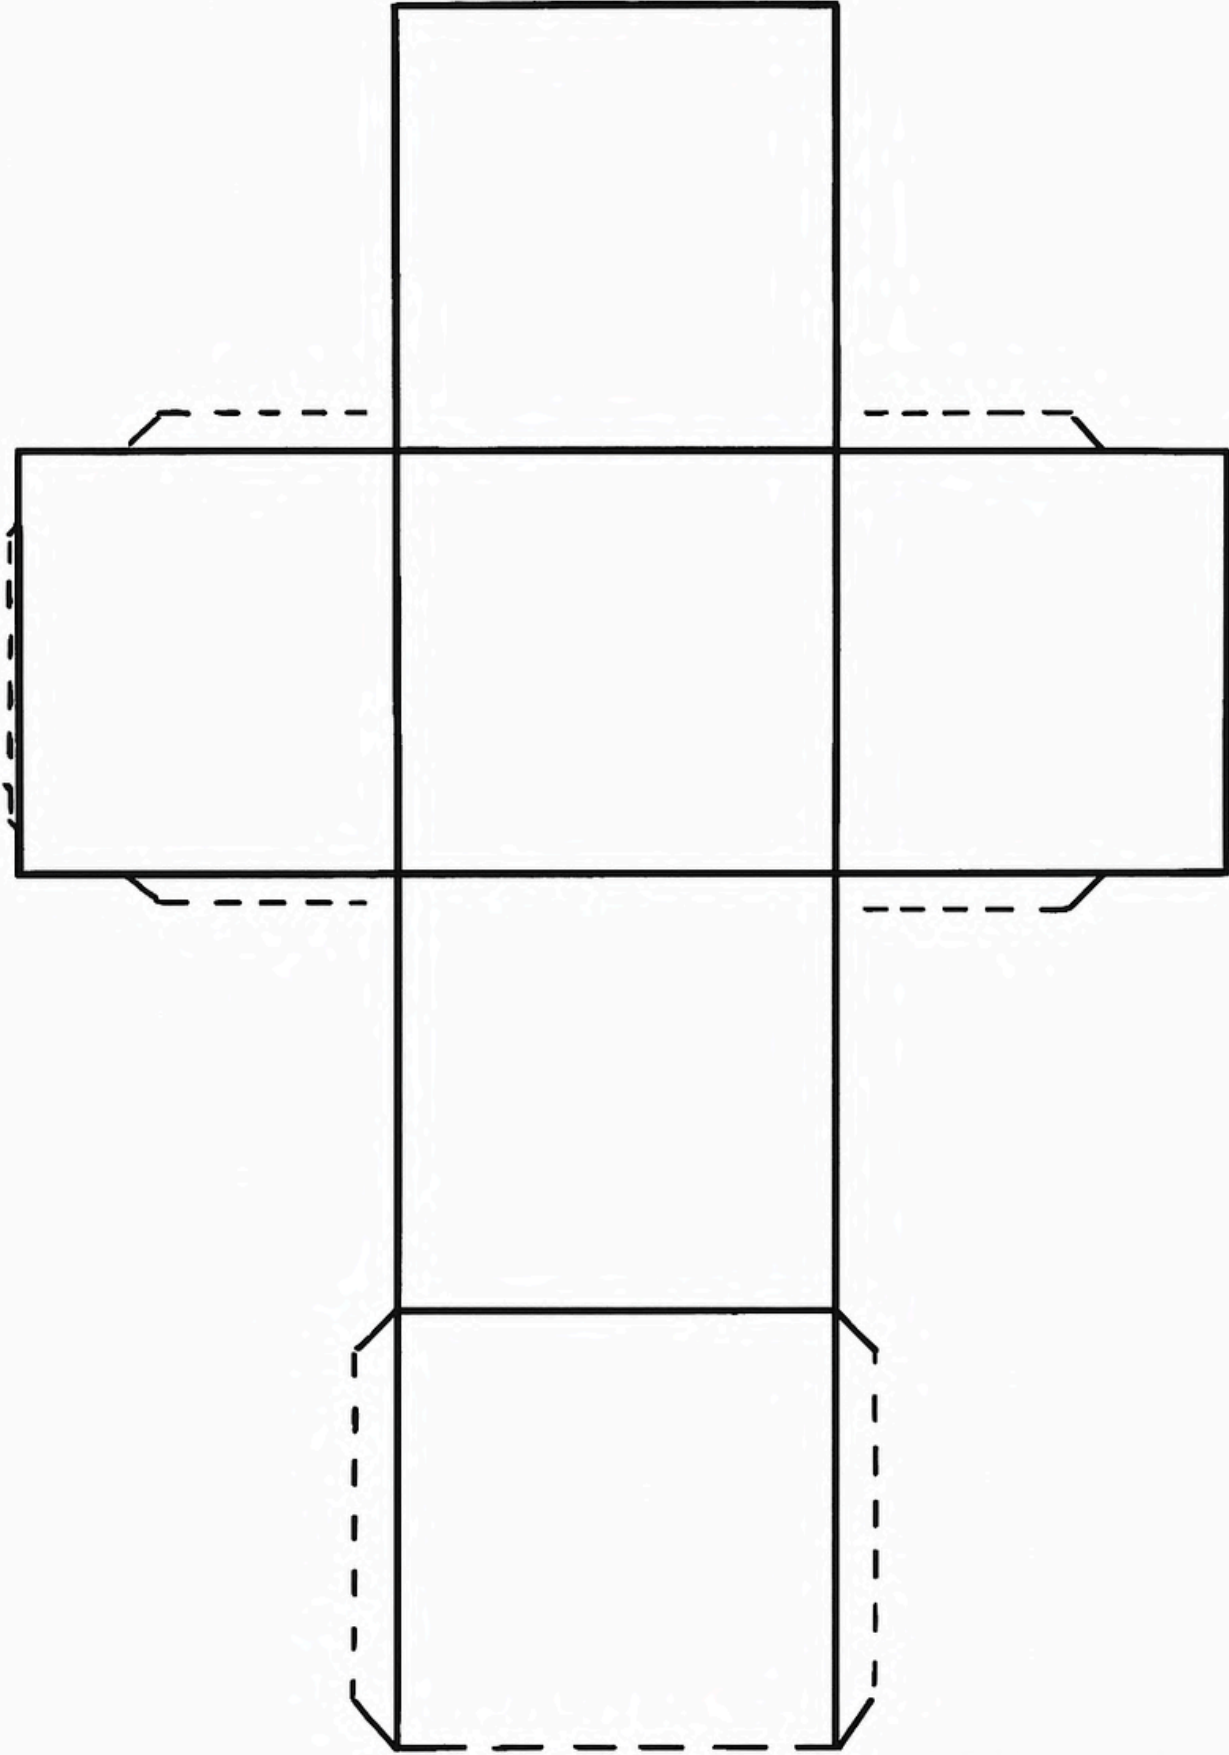

- How does stopping to pray help us make better choices?
- Can you think of a time when thinking of the consequences helped you choose wisely?
- Why is it important to ask, "Is this honouring to God?"

Memory Verse to Include:

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God... and it will be given to you." — James 1:5 (NIV)

2. What Can The Answer Be?

Lyrics & Music by Kimberly Houliston

Verse 1

It makes me feel so angry and it makes me feel so sad
 When choices made by some, can make things really bad
 I want to see some justice, I really want to say, that
 I think things should be different, I don't like this way

Verse 2

It does not seem fair, it does not seem right
 Seeing others hurting is not something that I like
 Is there anything that can be done, what can the answer be?
 To make this world a place where we can all live happily

3. What's Best

Lyrics & Music by Kimberly Houlston

Verse

The choices that you make today
Can impact on others
They may even really hurt
Your sister or your brother
The best way you can live is always
Choose the way that's right
The way that is loving and nice

Chorus

So do what's good
And do what's right
Do what's loving
Do what's kind
Always do your best
And always think it through
To find what is best for you to do

4. Think This All Through

Lyrics & Music by Kimberly Houliston

Verse

When I have a choice that I need to make
When there's a decision that I need to take
I need to ask myself before I choose
What is the best thing that I can do.

Chorus

Will it be helpful or harmful
Bad or good
Will I be doing something
That I really should
Before I choose
What I'm going to do
I'm gonna take some time
To think this all through

Lyrics & Music by Kimberly Houliston

We're in the middle of a battle
 Yes a very real war
 So the choices we make
 And the decision we take

 Seek out the truth and choose the right way
 Make sure you have not misunderstood
 The battle between evil and good
