SYNOPSIS

Jack faces the temptation to ignore his responsibilities and later gives in to peer pressure—first by skipping study to play football, and then by cheating on his exam. Wrap-Up Reflection

- What did you learn from Jack's story?
- Can you think of a small decision you made this week? Was it the right one?
- What helps you make wise choices when you're under pressure?

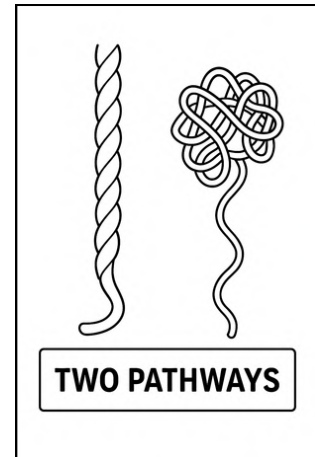

OBJECT LESSONS

1. Two Pathways

Theme: Choices Have Consequences

Materials:

- Two long strings or ribbons (e.g., red and green)
- One neatly laid out in a straight path (green = "God's Way")
- One tangled, knotted, and twisted (red = "Selfish Way" or "Wrong Choices")
- Signs or labels for each path ("Peaceful Path" and "Confused Path")

Lesson Message:

"Your choices are like steps on a path. Each one leads you somewhere."

1. Hold up the green string – neatly laid out in a straight line.

- Say: "This path represents what happens when we choose to follow God's way—truth, kindness, honesty, and obedience."
- Walk along it or have a child walk it.
- Ask: "How does it feel to walk along this path? Was it easy to follow?"

2. Hold up the red string – tangled, knotted, messy.

- Say: "This is the path we create when we make selfish or dishonest choices—lying, cheating, being mean, or ignoring what we know is right."
- Ask a child to try to walk or follow this path. They'll likely get tangled or confused.
- Ask: "How did it feel to walk this one? Was it harder?"

3. Make the point:

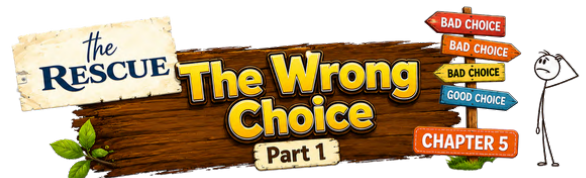

- "Each decision we make—big or small—takes us down a path. God loves us so much that He gives us the choice... but He also tells us which path leads to peace."
- "God's way may not always be the most fun in the moment (like studying instead of playing), but it leads to a life filled with trust, peace, and blessings."

Bible Connection:

- Deuteronomy 30:19 (NLT)
- "Today I have given you the choice between life and death, between blessings and curses. ... Oh, that you would choose life, so that you and your descendants might live!"

Optional Add-ons:

- Let kids draw their own "two pathways" and label them with examples of good and bad choices.
- Invite a discussion: "Can you think of a time when you had to choose between two paths?"

OBJECT LESSONS

2. Discernment Glasses

Theme: Seeing Clearly with God's Help

Objective: Help children understand how God's Word gives us wisdom and discernment to make good choices.

Materials:

- Cardboard or cardstock
- Scissors
- Crayons, markers, or stickers
- Transparent plastic wrap, colored cellophane, or clear plastic (for "lenses")

Activity Instructions:

1. Create the Glasses:

- Pre-cut or guide children to cut out cardboard glasses frames.
- Add coloured transparent plastic wrap as "lenses" (optional but fun).
- Decorate the frames with words like "Wisdom," "Truth," "God's Word," "Love," "Discernment."

2. Teach While They Craft:

- As children build their glasses, explain:
 - "Sometimes life is confusing. There are many voices telling us what to do. But God has given us His Word—the Bible—to help us see clearly and make the right choices."

Discussion Points:

- What do the glasses help you do? (See things differently!)
- What are some things God's Word helps us with?
 - Knowing right from wrong
 - Understanding how to treat others
 - Choosing honesty, kindness, and patience
- Can you think of a time when you needed help making a choice? How could the Bible have helped?

Bible Connection:

Psalm 119:105 (NIV)

"Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path."

James 1:5 (NLT)

"If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and He will give it to you."

CRAFT IDEAS

1. Discernment Decision Spinner

Theme:

Practicing Wise Choices

Objective:

Help children understand that discernment means thinking carefully and seeking God before making decisions.

Materials:

- Printable spinner template (circle divided into segments)
- Cardstock or paper plate
- Scissors
- Brad fastener or paperclip and pencil (to make the spinner)
- Crayons, markers, or stickers for decoration
- Optional: Glue, cardboard backing for sturdiness

1. Create the Spinner:

- Use a printable spinner template or draw a large circle divided into 6–8 equal sections.
- Label each section with a discernment option such as:
 - Pray first
 - Ask a trusted adult
 - Think ahead
 - What would Jesus do?
 - Is this loving?
 - What does the Bible say?
 - Will this help or hurt?
 - Follow the crowd?
- (Include one questionable option for discussion.)

2. Assemble the Spinner:

- Use a brad and paper arrow or a paperclip and pencil to make it spin.
- Kids decorate their spinners with colors, doodles, or faith-based stickers.

Discernment Decision Spinner - page 2

Lesson Connection:

As the kids decorate, guide the discussion:

"Sometimes we have to make choices really quickly—what we say, what we do, how we respond. God wants us to slow down and use the wisdom He's given us. This spinner reminds us of the tools we can use to choose wisely."

How to Use It:

- Present "What Should I Do?" scenarios.
- Let children spin the wheel to see what their first step could be.
- Talk through what that option would look like in real life.

Sample Scenarios:

- Someone dares you to say something mean.
- You forgot your homework and are tempted to lie.
- A friend is left out at lunch.
- You see someone cheat on a test.

Discussion Questions:

- Which options on the spinner help us make wise choices?
- What do you think would happen if we always "follow the crowd"?
- When should we stop and pray before acting?
- How does asking for help show wisdom, not weakness?

Bible Connection:

Proverbs 3:5–6 (NIV)

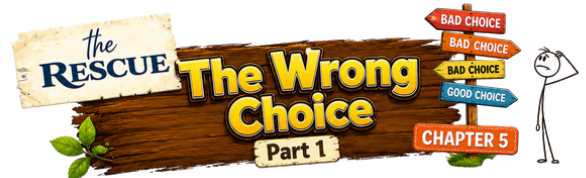

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight."

James 1:5 (NLT)

"If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and He will give it to you."

Optional Extensions:

- "Discernment Duel" Game – Two kids spin, explain their choice, and the group votes which is more aligned with God's wisdom.
- Mini Journal Prompt:
- "Write or draw a time you had to make a tough decision. What helped you choose wisely?"

CRAFT IDEAS

2. Pathway Poster – Which Way Will You Choose?

Objective:

Help children visually explore the consequences of their choices by comparing two life paths—God's Way vs My Way—and reflect on what it means to walk in wisdom and discernment.

Materials:

- Large sheet of poster paper or card stock
- Markers, crayons, or coloured pencils
- Stickers, magazine cut-outs, or pre-drawn clipart (hearts, Bibles, sad faces, broken hearts, crosses, etc.)

Instructions:

1. Draw Two Diverging Paths

- Label one: "God's Way"
- Label the other: "My Way"
- Have the paths start together at the bottom and then split—God's Way leading toward light, peace, joy ; My Way leading to confusion, regret, hurt

2. Decorate Each Path

Discussion Prompts as You Create:

- What kinds of choices do people make when they follow God's Way?
- What happens when we only do things our own way?
- How does the Bible help us choose the right path?
- What should we do when we're not sure which path to take?

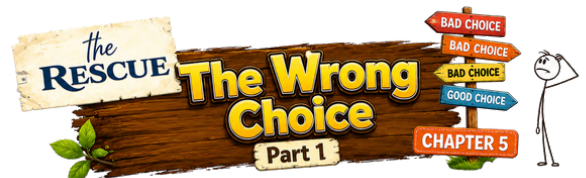

Bible Connection:

Deuteronomy 30:19-20a (NIV)

"This day I call the heavens and the earth as witnesses... that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live and that you may love the Lord your God..."

Wrap-Up Thought:

We all face choices every day. This poster helps us remember that the path we choose matters—and with God's help, we can walk the one that leads to life, peace, and joy.

5. Children of the King

Lyrics & Music by Kimberly Houlston

When I look at others
 What I try to see
 If not what I think they deserve
 But what they really need
 If they are being mean to you
 And not very nice
 Choose your words carefully
 And do what is right

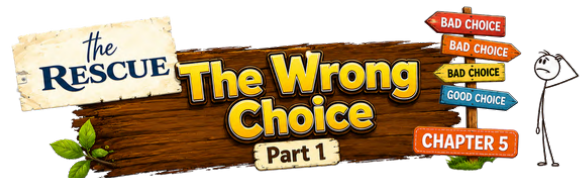

'Cause they are children of the King
 There is a God how loves them and wants to be happy
 They are children of the King
 I'll do all I can so they know they are loved by him

They are children of the King
 There is a God how loves them and wants to be happy
 They are children of the King
 I'll do all I can so they know they are loved by him
 I'll do all I can so they know they are loved by him
 I'll do all I can so they know they are loved by him
 They are children of the King
