OBJECT LESSONS

1. The Sticky Trap

Theme:

Temptation, consequences, and God's help.

Materials:

- A strip of flypaper or double-sided sticky tape
- Cotton balls (representing us)
- A clean path (paper or cardboard) labeled "God's Way"
- A sticky path labeled "Temptation"
- Tweezers or tongs (representing God's help)

Instructions

1. Introduce the Cotton Balls:

These soft cotton balls represent us.

We are light, free, and made to walk on a good path."

2. Show Two Paths:

Lay out two parallel "paths" on a board or table:

- One is clean, labeled "God's Way".
- The other is lined with sticky tape, labeled "Temptation."

Ask: Which path do you think is easier and safer to walk on?

3. Let the Cotton Balls Walk:

- Move one cotton ball along God's Way with ease.
- Then place one on the Temptation path. Let the kids see how it sticks and is difficult to move.

4. Try to Pull it Off:

- Try removing the stuck cotton ball with your fingers—it gets messy and hard.
- Then, demonstrate using tweezers or tongs (representing God's help) to gently lift the cotton ball free.

OBJECT LESSONS

The Sticky Trap continued...

Spiritual Connection / Message:

- Temptation often looks harmless or even fun at first (like Kade's plan or cheating on a test), but it can trap us quickly.
- Once we give in, we may feel stuck—like Jack did when he cheated and was blackmailed.
- The more we struggle on our own, the messier it gets.
- But when we ask God for help, He can gently lift us out of the mess.
- 1 Corinthians 10:13 – "God is faithful; He will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear... He will also provide a way out."

Discussion Questions:

- Why did the cotton ball get stuck?
- Have you ever made a choice that felt good at first but ended badly?
- What do you think "God's way out" might look like in real life?
- How can we avoid sticky traps (temptations) in the first place?

Optional Extensions:

- Let kids decorate their own "Sticky Trap" path and write examples of temptations they face (e.g., lying, cheating, gossip).
- Write or draw on a cotton ball something they can ask God for help with.
- Provide a "Rescue Tweezers" card with a Bible verse (like 1 Corinthians 10:13 or Psalm 50:15).

OBJECT LESSONS

2. The Ripple Effect

Focus Point : Our choices — good or bad — create ripples that affect others.

Materials:

- Large clear bowl or tray of water
- Small stones or pebbles
- Paper circles labeled with actions (e.g., "Lying," "Telling the Truth," "Helping Someone," "Stealing," "Standing Up for What's Right")
- Towels or cloth for spills

Instructions:

1. Set the Scene:

- Show the still water. Say, "This is like our life — peaceful and calm."

2. Drop the Pebble:

- Choose a labeled action (e.g., "Lying") and drop a pebble into the water. Watch the ripples.
- Ask: "Did you see how that small action affected the whole surface of the water? That's how our choices affect others."

3. Positive and Negative Ripples:

- Drop different pebbles with both good and bad choices. Compare the discussion around each ripple effect.

4. Optional Extension:

- Use paper people or character cards (e.g., "Jack," "Kade," "Chloe") and talk through how their choices caused ripples in the story.

Bible Verse:

Galatians 6:7 (NIV)

"Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows."

CRAFT IDEAS

1. Temptation Toolbox

Objective: Equip children with practical, faith-based strategies to resist temptation.

Materials:

- Small box, envelope, or recycled container (e.g., tissue box or shoebox)
- Colored paper or cardstock (for making "tools")
- Scissors
- Glue or glue stick
- Markers, crayons, or colored pencils

- Pen or fine marker (to write labels on the tools)

Instructions:

1. Decorate a small box or envelope to look like a "toolbox." Write "My Temptation Toolbox" on it.

3. On each tool, write a strategy for handling temptation:
  - "Pray"
  - "Ask for Help"
  - "Run Away"
  - "Tell the Truth"
  - "Remember a Bible Verse"
4. Practice using the toolbox: Read real-life situations and have children choose the best "tool."

Focus Point:

Temptation can come at any time, but God gives us tools to help us make the right choice. We don't have to face temptation alone!

Bible Verse:

"God is faithful. He will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, He will also provide a way out so that you can endure it."

➤ 1 Corinthians 10:13 (NIV)

CRAFT IDEAS

2. Right Path, Wrong Path” Footprint Craft

Theme: Choices and Consequences

Lesson Focus: Our decisions lead us down different paths—God’s way or the world’s way.

Materials:

- Two sheets of A4 paper (one for each path)
- Child’s foot traced and cut out (or use printable footprints)
- Markers or crayons
- Glue stick
- Labels or stickers (optional)

Instructions:

1. Draw Two Paths: On one sheet, draw a straight, clear path labeled “God’s Way”. On the other, draw a winding, messy path labeled “My Own Way.”

2. Decorate the Paths: Use words or pictures on each path to show what kind of choices are found there.

- “God’s Way”: love, kindness, honesty, courage
- “My Own Way”: lies, selfishness, pride, peer pressure

3. Add Footprints: Trace and cut out 3–4 footprints. Write a godly choice on each (e.g. “Be kind,” “Forgive”) and glue them on “God’s Way.”

4. Reflect: Read the Bible verse together. Ask, “What does it mean to choose life? How do our choices show who we follow?”

Bible Verse:

Deuteronomy 30:19 (NLT)

"Today I have given you the choice between life and death... Oh, that you would choose life, so that you and your descendants might live!"

What should I do?
It's an impossible choice

What will happen next?
Is there anything that can be done
To fix this terrible mess?
Is this just the beginning?
What is still to come?
How will this story end?
Can anything be done?
