SYNOPSIS

Jono is thrilled with his new bike and sets out to beat his personal best at Righteo Lookout Hill. But his joy is short-lived when he witnesses Kade push Chloe down an embankment. Jono rushes to help and gets Mrs. Jones, but Kade later denies it and blames Jono instead. Feeling betrayed, hurt, and falsely accused, Jono struggles to stay calm and trust in the truth.

Through a story about Joseph and his brothers, Mr. Simons helps Jono see how God understands injustice—and reminds him that God is always with those who stand for truth.

KEY QUESTIONS

- What should we do when something isn't fair?
- How can we respond when someone blames us for something we didn't do?
- Why is it important to tell the truth even when others don't believe us?
- Who can we trust to always know the truth?
- What can we learn from Joseph's story?

BIG IDEAS

- Life isn't always fair, but God is just.
- Doing the right thing doesn't always bring easy results, but it pleases God.
- We can trust God to bring good even from bad situations.
- God knows the truth even when people twist it.

PRAYER PROMPT

"Dear God, help me to tell the truth and do what's right, even when others blame me or treat me unfairly. Thank You that You see everything and know my heart. Please help me to trust You, just like Joseph did. Amen."

BIBLE PASSAGES

1. Bible Verses About Injustice & Being Falsely Accused

Proverbs 12:19 (NIV)

"Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue lasts only a moment."

► Reminds us that lies are temporary and will fade away, while truth lasts. This gives hope when someone is spreading false stories.

Isaiah 1:17 (NIV)

"Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed. Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow."

► God calls His people to actively stand for justice and help those treated unfairly—like Chloe in the story, or anyone oppressed.

Psalms 37:5-6 (NIV)

"Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him and he will do this: He will make your righteous reward shine like the dawn, your vindication like the noonday sun."

► When wrongly accused, God promises He will bring truth into the light at the right time. We don't need to fight alone.

1 Peter 2:19-21 (NIV)

For it is commendable if someone bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because they are conscious of God... To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example."

► Shows that even Jesus suffered injustice. When we endure unfairness faithfully, we are following His example.

Romans 12:17-19 (NIV)

"Do not repay anyone evil for evil... Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath..."

► Teaches us not to take revenge when mistreated. God will handle justice; our role is to keep responding with good.

BIBLE PASSAGES

2. Bible Verses About Responding With Integrity

Micah 6:8 (NIV)

"He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God."

► Lays out God's simple guide: do what's right, show kindness, and stay humble—even when life feels unfair.

Ephesians 4:25 (NIV)

"Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to your neighbour, for we are all members of one body."

► Reminds us that honesty builds trust and unity. Lies damage community, but truth holds people together.

Proverbs 21:3 (NIV)

"To do what is right and just is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice."

► Gives comfort that God is a safe place to run when we feel hurt, misunderstood, or falsely accused.

3. Bible Verses About Trusting God Through Trials

Genesis 50:20 (NIV)

"You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives."

► God values integrity and fairness in daily life more than empty religious actions. Integrity matters most.

Psalms 9:9 (NIV)

"The Lord is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble."

► Gives comfort that God is a safe place to run when we feel hurt, misunderstood, or falsely accused.

Character & Choices

1. Why do you think Kade blamed Jono for something he didn't do?
2. What do you notice about Jono's reaction? Was it kind? Was it truthful?
3. How would you feel if you were in Chloe's position, knowing the truth but staying quiet?

Bible Connection

1. How does Joseph's story help us understand how to respond when we're treated unfairly?
2. What do you learn about God's plan, even when things don't seem fair right now?
3. What do you think God wants us to do when we see someone else being treated unfairly?

Life Application

1. Can you think of a situation this week where you could stand up for what's right, even if it's hard?
2. Why is it important to be honest, even when it might get you in trouble?
3. How can we trust God when things feel unfair?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Life Applications

1. Stand for Truth Even When It's Hard

- Like Jono, you might be blamed for something you didn't do. Even when it's unfair, stand firm in the truth and trust that God knows your heart.
- Try this: Think of one way you can speak up kindly and honestly if someone says something untrue this week.

2. God Sees What Others Don't

- Even if people don't believe you, God always sees the whole picture. You are never alone.
- Try this: When something feels unfair, pause and pray, "God, You see the truth. Help me trust You."

3. Do the Right Thing Anyway

- Jono still helped Chloe, even though it didn't bring praise or thanks at first. Sometimes the right thing isn't rewarded—but it's still right.
- Try this: Do something kind this week for someone, even if no one notices or thanks you.

4. When You're Hurt, Talk to Someone You Trust

- Jono talked to Mr. Simons and found comfort and truth in God's Word. We can find help in safe people and Scripture.
- Try this: Who can you talk to when you feel confused, sad, or unfairly treated? Make a list of safe people and Bible verses that help you feel encouraged.

5. Remember the Bigger Picture

- The battle between good and evil is real, and sometimes we see its effects up close. But God's Rescue Plan is still at work, even when things go wrong.
- Try this: When something unfair happens, remind yourself, "God is still working for good. He hasn't left me."

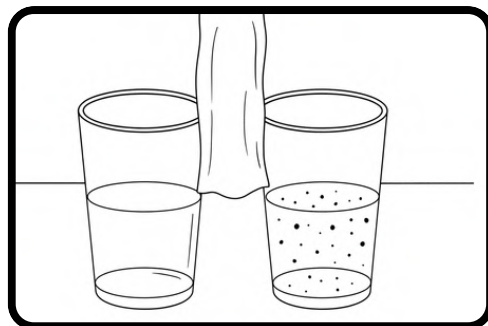

OBJECT LESSONS

1. "Clean or Dirty?" – The Truth Comes Out

Materials:

- 2 identical glasses of water (1 clean, 1 with a few drops of food coloring or dirt)
- White paper towel

Lesson:

Hold up both glasses and ask, "Which one would you rather drink?" Then dip a paper towel into each. Discuss how one looks clean and the other not. Explain that when someone lies, the truth is eventually revealed—just like the dirt shows when stirred or absorbed. God sees the heart and will shine light on truth, even when people are falsely accused.

Bible Verse

Psalm 37:5–6

2. "Crushed Can" – Hurt by Lies

Materials:

- Empty soft drink can
- Foot or hand to crush it
- Tape or glue

Lesson:

Crush the can and try to make it look perfect again. Talk about how lies and false accusations can deeply hurt someone—just like the crushed can. Even when we say sorry or try to fix it, it may not go back to the way it was. So we must speak truth and stand up for what's right

Bible Verse

Ephesians 4:25

1. "Truth or Lie?" Flip Cards

Theme: Discernment and truthfulness

Materials:

- Index cards or pre-printed templates
- Markers
- Scissors

Instructions:

Kids create double-sided cards. On one side, draw/write a lie (e.g., "Jono stole the ball"), and on the back, the truth (e.g., "He was helping pick it up"). Discuss how we must flip lies into truth, just as God helps us discern right from wrong.

Truth

He was helping pick it up.

Lie

Jono stole the ball.

CRAFT IDEAS

2. Stand for What's Right Footprint Path

Theme: From injustice to God's purpose

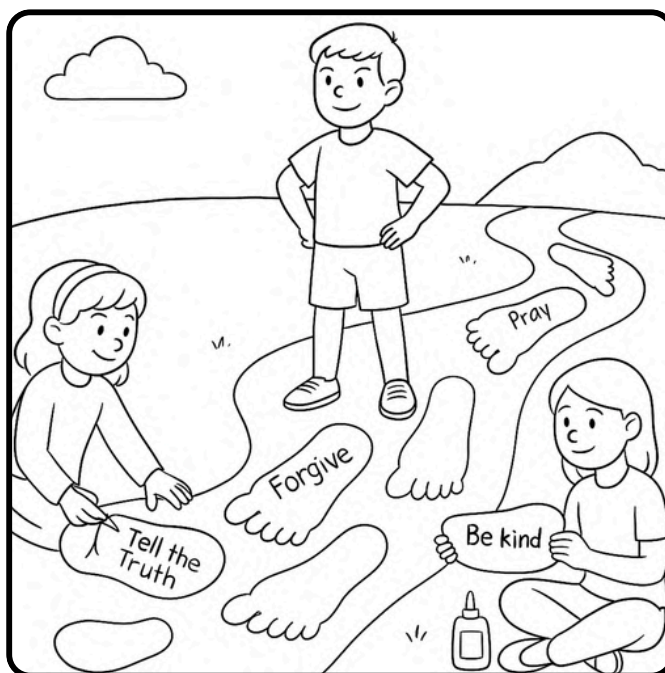

Materials:

- Index cards or pre-printed templates
- Markers
- Scissors

Instructions:

Each patch represents a part of Joseph's story (jealousy, slavery, false accusation, prison, leadership). As children build the coat, talk about how God used each "patch" of hardship for something greater.
